

History

Once renowned as Australia's most glamorous automobile showroom, 379 St Kilda Road is now known as one of Melbourne's luxurious designer boutique hotels.

While the exterior of the historical building retains its classical features, the architects and designers have redesigned a modern and chic interior to suit the discerning traveller.

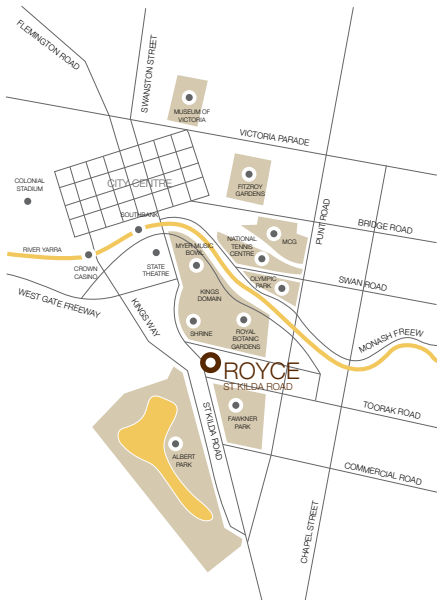

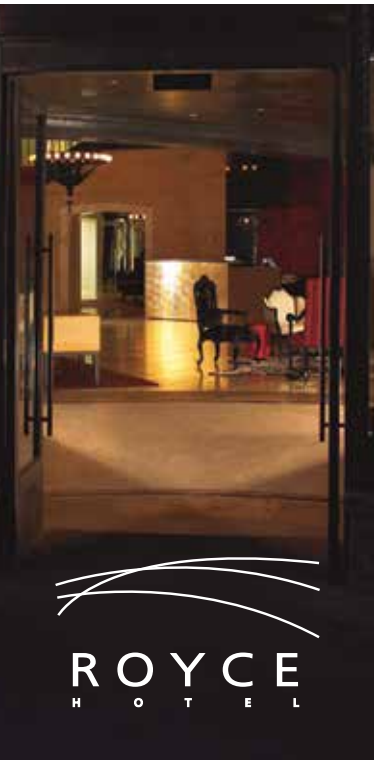

They have depicted a unique accommodation experience by creating a hotel that is distinctively different from any other. Royce Hotel is stylish and modern with an emphasis on personalised service, which offers guests a true boutique experience.

Functions

The Royce Hotel provides the perfect setting for both corporate events and private celebrations under our magnificent domed ceiling in the Royce Grand Ballroom.

Meeting rooms of various sizes accommodate up to 300 guests and cater for all types of events.

Our pillar free ballroom offers high speed broadband internet connection as well as wireless connectivity. Secretarial services, valet parking (subject to avail), as well as a full range of AV and technical assistance is also available. The team at Royce are dedicated to creating a memorable event.

Location

Royce is conveniently located near the Royal Botanic Gardens on Melbourne's famous boulevard. Royce is a short tram ride from Melbourne's CBD and fashionable shopping districts, and is also walking distance from Melbourne's Premier Theatre district. The Albert Park Lake, home of the Australian Grand Prix, is just a short stroll from the hotel front door. Royce also boasts easy accessibility to Melbourne Park, home of the Australian Open and the MCG.

Comfort

The hotel features modern and contemporary rooms and suites with spacious bathrooms. Room sizes and facilities vary depending on room type, all feature 42 inch plasma televisions, various rooms with large walk out balconies, some rooms with spa bath and LCD televisions, two storey Mezzanine Loft rooms, Premier One Bedroom Suites and our 4 poster Royal Suites that offer panoramic views over the city skyline and Shrine of Remembrance.

Dish, the hotel's award winning restaurant offers a warm and inviting atmosphere with the clever use of dark stained timber screens and hand painted dishes from local artists on mirrored walls. The restaurant boasts an extensive menu, with modern Australian inspired dishes and extensive wine list with an emphasis on local and Australian wines. The restaurant overlooks the bustling St Kilda Road promenade and offers al fresco dining, letting diners soak up the urban atmosphere that is Melbourne.

The ultra stylish bar features a wide variety of cocktails and beverages and the bar's famous range of boutique beers. The amber lit bar and the shimmering beaded curtain wall set against dark floors, walls and ceilings add to the appeal of this innovative lounge bar.
